

M&M Sorting

Target Age:

Middle Three-Year-Old

Materials You Will Need:

bag of M&M candy

Skills Learned:

- * Visual Discrimination
- * Counting Concepts
- * Sorting

Activity Category:

- * Fun With Numbers

Activity Contributor:

Carrie Biales, M. Ed.

What To Do:

This fun sorting activity will help your child develop basic math concepts. Have your child sort M&Ms by color, making groups or rows of each. Have your child count the number in each group or row and decide which has the most and which has the least.

Variations:

Try using animal crackers and have your child make animal groups. Name and count each animal group.
